

GREATER CINCINNATI
WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL

Merhaba! (Hello!) I am reaching out to you for news coverage regarding an upcoming event at the Great America Tower in downtown Cincinnati. The Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council (GCWAC), in partnership with the Foreign Policy Leadership Council (FPLC), is hosting an international luncheon, Conversation with the General Consul to Turkey: Mr. Fatih Yildiz. The luncheon will take place Friday, March 29, 2013 from noon – 1:15pm at the office of Frost Brown Todd, at 3300 Great American Tower, 301 E. 4th St., Cincinnati, OH 45202. Mr. Yildiz will give an overview of Turkish foreign policy, discuss current US and Turkish relations, and answer questions from the Cincinnati community.

The GCWAC hosts speaking engagements for the greater Cincinnati community to provide the opportunity for community members to engage with international professionals and to help strengthen the region culturally, professionally and economically. The events usually draw 25 - 40 business, academic, and community leaders. The GCWAC's mission is to be the leader in preparing the region and its citizens, individually and collectively, to thrive in the 21st century global environment, by promoting international understanding, engagement, and cooperation.

Please let me know if you have availability to offer coverage for our event and I will provide you with additional details. Do not hesitate to contact me at kkrafka@cincyworldaffairs.org or call me at (859) 44-8984.
