Cincinnati – Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council will host seven European visitors on the premier exchange program through the U.S. Department of State’s International Leadership Program (IVLP).

The purpose of this event is to facilitate a conversation between the European visitors and other attendees, with a focus on the empowerment of European youth through entrepreneurship and innovation. The visitors will provide their perspectives on the matter as experienced through this exchange. This is also an excellent networking opportunity.

About Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council (GCWAC): The Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council’s mission is to lead the Greater Cincinnati region and its citizens, individually and collectively, to thrive in the 21st century global environment, by promoting international understanding, education, engagement, and cooperation. The council actively leads in the development of internationally focused activities that include education, exchange of people and ideas, and facilitation of global linkages.

To attend or cover this event or for more information call (859) 448-8984.
