Trivia challenge at 21C will test global wit of region's professionals

CINCINNATI, OHIO - The Greater Cincinnati World Affairs Council (GCWAC), Cincinnati's resource for global awareness and global education programs, is holding its first annual fundraiser "ONE Mind - ONE World - ONE Night" at 21C Museum Hotel on Saturday February 8.

The event will begin with cocktails and dinner then proceed to the trivia challenge. The team with the highest global IQ will be crowned the winners. The title sponsor for the event is The Carol Ann & Ralph V. Haile, Jr. US Bank Foundation. The venue sponsor is 21C Museum Hotel. One of the rounds of questions is sponsored by Rumpke.

Proceeds from the event will support the global education programs of the GCWAC which prepares students of all ages to thrive in the 21st century global environment. GCWAC is committed to engaging more youths and community members in global events and activities.

Teams will compete against each other in 4 globally themed rounds of questions. It's "Jeopardy!" meets "Where in the World is Carmen San Diego."

Corporate tables give businesses the opportunity to build their international brand and feature their company logo at the event. Businesses have the chance to motivate their employees to engage in global understanding and measure their company's Global IQ against others. Individual teams not associated with a corporation give friends and family the chance to demonstrate their global wit.
