The World Affairs Council is the bridge that connects the world to one of America’s most vibrant regions. Through global education, international exchange, and cultural awareness initiatives, the Council strengthens Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky’s international identity and engages individuals with foreign affairs.
Global Classrooms, Art Meets World, & International Education Summit transitioned to online engagement activities and resources.

Camp Covington launched!

“Global Classrooms open the windows of the world to our students without having to leave the school building!”
- Josh Amstutz, Academy of Global Studies

Hosting exchange visitors annually through the U.S. Department of State’s International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) helps people to people diplomacy efforts “one handshake at a time.” These emerging world leaders create personal and professional connections with people just like you.

Exchanges, virtual for 2 years, launched an alumni program to stay better connected due to the pandemic!

“You welcomed a stranger and sent home a friend.”
- Madhura M. Chatrpathy, U.S. Department of State IVLP

Given the leadership role that the U.S. plays in the world, the Council brings foreign affairs experts to deepen understanding about timely global challenges and policies. As a nonpartisan organization, we are sharing perspectives and helping to inform through these open dialogues.

Now providing programs virtually via Zoom webinars to engage people all over the world.

“I’ve loved having so many opportunities to learn more about global issues from people directly involved.”
- Jake Bartel, Member since 2016
